

ABO announces new executive director, Ms. Carole Newport

The American Board of Orthodontics (ABO) is pleased to announce that Carole Newport is the new executive director as of Jan. 1, 2017. She succeeds Christine Eisenmayer, who served as executive secretary since 1999. Mrs. Newport has been with the ABO since 2012, serving as the operations manager. In this position, she handled legal transactions, marketing projects, exam administration, human resources matters and finances. Mrs. Newport has a bachelor's degree in business management and a master's degree in marketing.

Mrs. Newport came to the ABO with 10 years of experience from the Raymond Management Company, where she served as a hotel general manager and director of sales. She is also a member of the American Society of Association Executives.

The ABO leadership is pleased that Mrs. Newport has accepted this appointment and knows she will represent the ABO well and will contribute much to the community. Mrs. Eisenmayer, meanwhile, is excited to step back and will remain on staff part time to assist as needed and to support a smooth transition.
